Look at the depths, this has sunken too. The bottom. The gutter. It's sunken so low that you brought my parents into it for no reason and insulted them in an awful terrible way. I do care about you and I do love you. We shouldn't be at this level. It should never be like this. I'm not gonna snap or wig out. I'm not in that place that I was years ago. I do love you and I do care about you. It didn't and doesn't need to be like this.
